Come celebrate with us at this special event to acknowledge and appreciate the dedication and hard work of everyone involved in our clinical trials.

Guest Speaker: Mike Afshar
Assistant Vice President, Information Technology at The Lundquist Institute

Mike Afshar will discuss how AI tools are transforming clinical research, with a focus on how these technologies can augment the work of clinical research coordinators—streamlining workflows, enhancing data quality, and improving participant engagement.
